Merrick A. Foster

Kintyre District, Kingston 6, Jamaica

1876-848-6137; Email: MERRICKAFOSTER@students.utech.edu.jm

Career Summary:

Tech-savvy, collaborative, and adaptable student with a solid foundation in computer networking and security principles. Skilled in data entry, accounting, and programming languages such as Python and C. Proficient in using tools like Wireshark, VMware, and Cisco Packet Tracer, with a direct and technology-focused approach to problem-solving.

A Computer Network & Security student seeking to acquire an internship/entry-level junior system administrator position in a professional firm specializing in IT infrastructure, cybersecurity, and advisory services.

Special Skills: Proficiency in using python, bash, VMware, cisco packet tracer, databases, networks (LAN, WAN), and patch management, customer service skills

---

Education & Qualifications:

2023 Present:	BSc Computer Network and Security | University Of Technology, Jamaica
	Core modules successfully completed include:
	• Network Administration & Technical Support
	• Operating Systems
	• Contemporary Programming
2023:	Eight (8) Caribbean Examinations Council Subjects passes
2023:	NCTVET level 2 Certificates in Data Operations and
2023:	NCTVET level 2 Certificates in Baker/ Commis chef

Work Experience

2024 (May-August):	Centre For The Arts University of Technology, Jamaica
	• Preparation of Databases using Computer Applications
	• Cataloguing Costumes
	• Performing clerical functions
	• Prepared Artwork for flyers & posters

Co-curricular Activities: A member of the Land Surveying Club

References:

Mr. Philip Clarke- Director UTech, Jamaica Centre for The Arts 1876-927-1680